ALBERT SHOWS GAMENESS AND COMES OUT AFTER 20 ROUNDS

In Good Condition; Opinion Over Decision Is Divided; Los Angeles Boy Is Knocked Out in the Curtain Raiser by Eddie Martin.

EFFECTIVE use of his left hand blows and ability to outpoint and outpace his adversary were the deciding factors in the decision.

Albert, of Philadelphia, over Louis Hayes, of Manila, Sunday afternoon, in the latter's arena, after one of the liveliest boxing matches witnessed here in some time. For 15 rounds of a fast 20 round contest, the two men fought a hard, close, and exciting battle, with Albert showing gameness and coming out after 20 rounds.

When the decision was rendered it did not meet with the unanimous approval of the small crowd, many of whom thought that Albert should have received a draw.

Hayes' Blows Effective. During the early rounds the amateur left the curtain of a fight with a striking left to the face that found its mark many times. Effectiveness of blows and of his own defense, however, was a large margin, inasmuch as he achieved his opponent's knock out in the 17th round.

Today In Fight Annals

Monday, Oct. 5

1455—John Morrison defeated Yankee Sullivan in 27 rounds winning on a technicality, in a bout for $2000 and the championship of America. Sullivan had all the best of the bout, but lost the decision because he left the champion's side of the ring.

The affair between the two men ended in a free for all under DuPont's Fair Play. Many heads were broken and all present enjoyed a good time, except the referee, who broke all records in his first career to escape from Sullivan's infuriated followers.

Morrison was a native of Tippecanoe, Ind., where he was fighting under the name of "Tippecanoe" for a long time. He was a former champion of the world in the light weight class, and was a former champion of the world in the light weight class.

1581—Jimmy Britt, former lightweight champion, fought a hard battle with a former champion of the world in the light weight class, and was a former champion of the world in the light weight class.

he would snap up the offer if Ritchie were not to be considered.

White thus enlightens a breathless sporter, who has been told of a certain Welshman's offer to fight for $25,000 for three exhibitions. If he makes good, the Welshman will be a contender for the world's championship. He would fight for the title of world champion, and would fight for the title of world champion.

Johnson Is Barred. White's lack of a good fight record is a serious handicap. He is a good fighter, but he is not a good fighter. He is a good fighter, but he is not a good fighter. He is a good fighter, but he is not a good fighter.

Local promoters are falling in line with the proposed plan to permit referee's decisions in bouts in this state. For several years the leading match makers have been laboring under the mistaken idea that official decisions would be a hindrance to the sport, but they have different views on the subject just at present. It must be that the big fight promoters in this state have decided to change their minds.
